

Hackettstown Public Library Presents..

MUSIC, MINDS and MOTION

With

LISA BALDWIN

Thursday, August 18th
@ 10:30 am

All ages are welcome to attend!
Registration is not required!

Join us at the library for a morning filled with music, storytelling, and fun! Lisa Baldwin has been a professional musician and songwriter since 1984, performing folk, country, bluegrass, and original music. Ms. Baldwin holds a BS in Education with a minor in Music from Auburn University and will be teaching 2nd Grade at Hatchery Hill this year! Her educational program “Learning Through Song” was founded in 1996 and is the predecessor to “Music, Minds, and Motion.” She has presented this interactive music, reading, and movement program at schools, libraries, child development centers, festivals, and senior centers in Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, and Virginia. Lisa and her husband, Centenary University’s new President, Dave Haney, have toured and performed as a duo throughout the United States playing folk, country and bluegrass music.

A MUSIC, READING AND MOVEMENT PROGRAM
FOR CHILDREN OF ALL AGES!

To learn more about Lisa, visit:
WWW.MUSICMINDSANDMOTION.COM

